ETHICS WITH MINORS FOR

MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

how to navigate the most challenging issues

Those of us who treat minors and their families experience a flood of emotions. There is confusion over changing ethical codes and laws, fear that the actions that we take will lead to long-term developmental damage, and anxiety that at any moment we might unintentionally cross a line that could jeopardize our professional license and put us in legal peril. In this environment, we can find ourselves impaired in our ability to function as professionals and help our clients.

Combining a step-by-step guide to an effective decision-making model, the most updated ethical codes and legal statutes, and lessons from 30 years as a clinician and ethics professor, Terry Casey, PhD, HSP will give you a solid foundation for evaluating the ethical options when working with minors and their families. You will have much more confidence about the course of action you take involving mandatory reporting, access to minors’ records, parental rights, boundary issues, touch, and others.

Speaker

TERRY CASEY, PhD, HSP, is a licensed psychologist, health service provider with over 30 years of professional experience, including a 16-year tenure as the director of counseling & psychological services for a non-profit agency with over 30 counselors at over a dozen locations. He is in private practice in Franklin Tennessee, teaches ethics and professional issues in counseling at Lipscomb University’s graduate program in clinical mental health counseling, and guest lectures at Trevecca University’s PhD program in Clinical counseling. Dr. Casey also served for several years as the chair of the ethics committee for the Tennessee Licensed Professional Counselors’ Association and in an advisory capacity for graduate counseling programs at two universities. He has presented frequently on ethics to organizations such as the American Counseling Association, the Tennessee Licensed Professional Counselors Association, the Nashville Area Association of Christian Counselors, and others. For more information visit his practice website at rencounselingtn.com.

Speaker Disclosures:
Financial: Dr. Terry Casey maintains a private practice. He is an adjunct faculty member at Lipscomb University. Dr. Casey receives a speaking honorarium from PESI, Inc.
Non-financial: Dr. Terry Casey is a member of the American Psychological Association and the American Counseling Association.

Dr. Casey’s workshops not only provide cutting edge information on legal and ethical issues, they also allow participants to interact with peers and the code of ethics in meaningful way. Participants are challenged, engaged, and leave with real-life skills.

– Jake, PhD

Objectives

1. Identify the five primary perspectives of the Multiple Perspective Model of ethical decision-making when working with minors.
2. Summarize the difference between consent and assent and how they apply to working with minors.
3. Apply ethics code and statutory requirements related to confidentiality standards to situations regarding minor clients.
4. Evaluate the potential ethical courses of action to take in situations involving minor clients, using the Multiple Perspectives Model.
5. Explain the state laws that govern mandatory reporting and how these impact ethical decision making in clinical practice.
6. Evaluate current clinical practice policies to ensure adequate protection involving issues of boundaries and physical touch.
