Legal & Ethical Issues in Behavioral Health in Arkansas

Legal & Ethical Issues in Behavioral Health in Arkansas

Without the proper legal awareness needed to stay in compliance, you may face grave legal and financial consequences. This seminar will show you how to continue to help the people you’ve been trained to help while still protecting yourself from many legal pitfalls. If you attend only one seminar this year, make it this one. Join attorney Lois Fenner for an entertaining and enlightening day and leave with a greater understanding of the latest Arkansas laws as they relate to behavioral health. You will take home practical strategies to minimize and manage legal and ethical risks and you will learn how to immediately implement these risk reducing strategies into your practice.

Target Audience:

Social Workers • Counselors • Psychologists • Marriage and Family Therapists
AODA Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Counselors • Health Information Managers
Medical Records Professionals • Nurses

Speaker

LOIS FENNER, R.N., M.S., Attorney at Law, is an honors graduate of the University of Maryland School of Nursing Graduate School and the University of Maryland School of Law. She is an attorney and registered nurse, certified clinical specialist. Ms. Fenner is a member of the Maryland Trial Lawyers Association, The American Nurse Attorneys Association, Women’s Bar Association, past president of the Monumental City Bar Association, Phi Kappa Phi and Sigma Theta Tau Honor Societies and the National Exchange Club. She has been recognized by the Alliance of Black Women Attorneys with the 1997 Distinguished Women in Law Award, the Baltimore Marketing Association Harold Young Leadership Award in 2000, and the Baltimore County Diversity Award in 2001. Additionally, she is a three-time recipient of the Daily Record’s Top 100 Women in Maryland Award, and has been recognized as a Baltimore Business Journal’s Who’s Who in Law in 2003.

She was selected as one of the Super Lawyers in 2009 and 2010. Her practice focuses on medical litigation and health care to include medical malpractice, personal injury, accreditation, workers compensation, wrongful death and licensure issues.

LIVE SEMINAR CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT INFORMATION

Credits listed below are for full attendance at the live event only. After attendance has been verified, pre-registered attendees will receive an email from PESI Customer Service with the subject line, "Evaluation and Certificate" within one week. This email will contain a link to complete the seminar evaluation and allow attendees to print, email or download a certificate of completion if in full attendance. For those in partial attendance (arrived late or left early), a letter of attendance is available through that link and an adjusted certificate of completion reflecting partial credit will be issued within 30 days (if your board allows). Please see "LIVE SEMINAR SCHEDULE" on this brochure for full attendance start and end times. NOTE: Boards do not allow credit for breaks or lunch.

If your profession is not listed, please contact your licensing board to determine your continuing education requirements and check for reciprocal approval. For other credit inquiries not specified below, or questions on home study credit availability, please contact cpesi@pesi.com or 800-844-8260 before the event.

Materials that are included in this course may include interventions and modalities that are beyond the authorized practice of mental health professionals. As a licensed professional, you are responsible for reviewing the scope of practice, including activities that are defined in law as beyond the boundaries of practice in accordance with and in compliance with your profession's standards.

PESI, Inc. offers continuing education programs and products under the brand names PESI, PESI Healthcare, PESI Rehab and Psychotherapy Networker.

Ethics: This seminar includes 6.25 hours of state specific ethics instruction. If ethics is not specified within your licensing board's approval statement below, please contact your board to determine the applicability and amount of ethics allowed.

Addiction Counselors: This course has been approved by PESI, Inc., as a NAADAC Approved Education Provider, for 6.0 CE in the Legal, Ethical and Professional Development skill group. NAADAC Provider #77553. PESI, Inc. is responsible for all aspects of their programming. Full attendance is required; no partial credit will be awarded for partial attendance.

Counselors: This intermediate activity consists of 6.25 clock hours of continuing education instruction. Credit requirements and approvals vary per state board regulations. Please save the course outline, the certificate of completion you receive from the activity and contact your state board or organization to determine specific filing requirements.

Arkansas Counselors: This intermediate activity consists of 6.25 clock hours of continuing education instruction. Credit requirements and approvals vary per state board regulations. Please contact your licensing board to determine if they accept programs or providers approved by other national or state licensing boards. A certificate of attendance will be awarded at the end of the program to participants who are in full attendance and who complete the program evaluation.

Marriage & Family Therapists: This activity consists of 380 minutes of continuing education instruction. Credit requirements and approvals vary per state board regulations. You should save this course outline, the certificate of completion you receive from the activity and contact your state board or organization to determine specific filing requirements.

Nurses, Nurse Practitioners, and Clinical Nurse Specialists: PESI, Inc. is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.
