 "And now my insurance won't pay"

"Wow! Truly enlightening and really makes one think on & off the grid! Very enjoyable and would recommend, highly, to all practitioners!"

--Celina, psychotherapist/counselor

Objectives

- Explain how a practical model for ethical decision-making informs the clinical practice setting.
- Articulate the legal and ethical codes that relate to utilizing technology while providing mental health services.
- Establish ethical practices to ensure client safety, maintain confidentiality and obtain informed consent when utilizing distance mental health services.
- Consider cultural differences when using technology and articulate how this may inform the clinician's choice of treatment interventions.
- Establish clear ethical guidelines to address the potential for a dual relationship when interacting with clients via technology.

Hassle-Free Cancellation Policy:

If you contact us before the event date, you can exchange for a self-study package on the subject (CE credits may be available), a certificate to attend another seminar, or receive a tuition refund less a $30 cancel fee. Substitutions are permitted at any time.

Digital Technology Has Changed the Way We Serve and Interact with Clients

Let's face it—the digital age is here to stay, and it has ushered in a complete paradigm shift in what it means to provide quality, ethical mental health treatment.

Your current clients, and potential new ones, are accustomed to being able to receive every imaginable service using technology as the format. It only stands to reason that they are seeking, and even expecting, the type of services you provide to be available in the same fashion.

Whether you are already in the digital space, or you realize that you want and even need to be, the ethical considerations are unique, complex, and exciting all at the same time.

Let Jeff Ashby, PhD, ABPP, RPT-S – a mental health clinician with 20 years of clinical and research experience – be your guide as you explore the ethical issues related to social media, blogs, websites, and more.

Through discussion and case examples, learn how to address complex ethical dilemmas while maintaining the highest standards of clinical practice.

Through discussion and case examples learn how to address complex ethical dilemmas while maintaining the highest standards of clinical practice.

Speaker

Jeff Ashby, PhD, ABPP, RPT-S, is a professor in the department of counseling and psychological services at Georgia State University. He is the director of Georgia State's Counseling Psychology doctoral program, a licensed psychologist, and a Diplomate of the American Board of Professional Psychology. Dr. Ashby has taught ethics at the graduate level for over 20 years and has served as the chair of the Ethics Committee of the International Association of Play Therapy and as an ethics content expert with the State of Georgia Psychology board. He has made over 100 presentations at professional conferences and authored/co-authored more than 80 articles in refereed journals, numerous book chapters, and two books.

Dr. Ashby received a BA in psychology and English literature from the University of Kansas, an MEd in counseling and school psychology from Wichita State University, and a PhD in counseling psychology from Penn State.

Speaker Disclosure:

Take advantage of the 56 practices inside to detox from your devices, feel rejuvenated, find healthier coping skills, and embrace the present moment.

Legal and Ethical Issues for Mental Health Clinicians:

Best Practices for Avoiding Litigation, Complaints and Malpractice

By Susan J. Lewis, Ph.D., J.D.

Guidance, strategies, solutions and up-to-date information to help keep you out of court and jail. Easy-to-understand language to step you through the legalese, highlighted by 30 engaging case examples to illustrate how you can overcome legal and ethical challenges, including risk management, contracts, HIPAA privileged communication, licensing complaints, supervision pitfalls, rights of minors and technology.

"Been a counselor for 30 years and this was the best ethics workshop I've been to. Highly informative and done in a way that did not leave me extremely stressed but just more knowledgeable."

--Mary, LPC

"Dr. Ashby was energetic, charismatic, funny-very easy to learn from. Very knowledgeable. Will try to attend other seminars by him. Thank you!"

--Clarena, Licensed Psychotherapist

Live Seminar Continuing Education Credit Information

Credits listed below are for full attendance at the live event only. After attendance has been verified, pre-registered attendees will receive an email from PESI Customer Service with the subject line, "Evaluation and Certificate" within one week. This email will contain a link to complete the seminar evaluation and allow attendees to print, email or download a certificate of completion if in full attendance. For those in partial attendance (arrived late or left early), a letter of attendance is available through that link and an adjusted certificate of completion reflecting partial credit will be issued within 30 days (if your board allows). Please see "LIVE SEMINAR SCHEDULE" on this brochure for full attendance start and end times. NOTE: Boards do not allow credit for breaks or lunch.

If your profession is not listed, please contact your licensing board to determine your continuing education requirements and check for reciprocal approval. For other credit inquiries not specified below, or questions on home study credit availability, please contact cepesi@pesi.com or 800-844-8260 before the event.
