Target Audience: Counselors • Social Workers
Marriage & Family Therapists • Psychologists
Addiction Counselors • Case Managers
Registered Dietitians & Dietetic Technicians
Nurses • and other Mental Health Professionals

Objectives

- 1) Articulate different clinical presentations regarding emotional eating, Binge Eating Disorder, disordered eating and weight concerns.
- 2) Determine the impact of diet culture on disordered eating patterns and body image issues that present in clinical treatment.
- 3) Teach clients how to implement the three essential steps of attuned eating to replace disordered eating patterns, including binge eating.
- 4) Provide psychoeducation for clients regarding the process of translating emotional issues into eating and weight loss focus that results in shame.
- 5) Implement strategies to help clients regulate emotional distress without turning to food and to cultivate a positive body image.
- 6) Analyze the impact of personal bias and weight stigma on clients both within and outside of the treatment setting.
- 7) Evaluate the body of research related to the Health At Every Size framework as it relates to weight and health, and promoting positive, sustainable behaviors.

Emotional Eating, Chronic Dieting, Bingeing and Body Image

"I'm too fat." "I'm on a diet." "Today is a cheat day."
"Once I lose weight, I'll be happier."
"My eating is out of control."

This kind of language runs rampant in our society and has no doubt made its way to your office. Clients who struggle with weight and food issues get caught in a vortex of shame, preoccupation and hopelessness. Trapped between the rigidity of dieting and the chaos of overeating, every day can be an emotional battle that may exacerbate or even result in low self-worth, eating disorders, anxiety or depression.

Treatment of these issues is more than a matter of weight loss or self-control. In fact, many times these very interventions do more harm than good!

Join Judith Matz as she shows you how to help your clients identify the shame that is woven into the diet-binge cycle, challenge unhelpful thoughts and feelings, and repair dysfunctional relationships with food – no willpower necessary!

Speaker

Judith Matz, LCSW, is co-author of the Body Positivity Card Deck and two books on the topics of eating and weight struggles, Beyond a Shadow of a Diet: The Comprehensive Guide to Treating Binge Eating Disorder, Compulsive Eating and Emotional Overeating has been called “the new bible” on this topic for professionals. The Diet Survivor’s Handbook: 60 Lessons in Eating, Acceptance and Self-Care was a #1 bestseller on Amazon and a favorite resource for therapists to use with clients. She is also the author of Amanda’s Big Dream, a children’s book that helps kids to pursue their dreams – at any size!

Judith has a private practice in Skokie, IL, where she focuses her work with clients who want to get off the diet/binge rollercoaster and learn to feel at home in their bodies. Through her individual counseling, groups, workshops, presentations and books, Judith has helped thousands of people to develop self-care skills that increase physical, emotional and spiritual wellbeing without a focus on the pursuit of weight loss. Through educational programs, she is dedicated to helping people end the preoccupation with food and weight. Judith received her MSW at University of Michigan, and earned her post-graduate certificate at Michael Reese Hospital in Chicago, where she trained in the treatment of eating disorders.

Judith is a frequent contributor to the Psychotherapy Networker magazine and a popular speaker at national conferences. Descriptions of her work have appeared in the media including the New York Times, LA Times, Allure, Fitness, Self, Shape, Today’s Dietitian, Diabetes Self-Management, NBC News Chicago, Huffington Post Live, and she appears in the documentary America The Beautiful 2.

Speaker Disclosures:
